

Two-day Certificate Course on SBCC Attended by Development Practitioners from NGOs and CSR Foundations

A SBCC certificate course was organised in Delhi on 1-2 March 2017 at Indian Social Institute, New Delhi. Twenty-four development practitioners from over 14 organisations successfully completed the two-day certificate course.

Participants came from Kolkata, Chennai, Mumbai, Indore, Ghaziabad and Delhi. They were from Amba Foundation, VSO India, Children International, MSSRF, 4th Wheel, Save the Children India, Terre des hommes-Germany India Program, Heifer International, Splash, United Way Delhi, National Skill Development Corporation, FXB India Suraksha, SCMKVM College, Indore, and Alliance Airline Services.

The course content was laced with theory and practical examples to illustrate the applicability of SBCC to development communication in various sectors.

Voices from Participants

“Thank you for the highly beneficial inputs during the workshop. It has built and strengthened my knowledge and capacity and will enhance my contribution towards my organisation.

Rini D'Souza
Associate Consultant
Development Communication”

“It was a great experience going through SBCC theory and models. It was indeed an enriching two days for me and I shall use the learning in my course of work. The training in itself was very well organised. The exercises were very good. I look forward to know more about SBCC and use it in my work.

Reena Tete
Head, Delhi Chapter
Save the Children India”

“Thank you for facilitating a very interesting 2-day workshop. I'm sure all the participants benefitted greatly with your facilitation.

B Jayashree
Head, The Hindu Media
Resource Centre, MSSRF”