Child Welfare Committee

Overview

The State Government is legally bound to set up a Child Welfare Committee (CWC) in each district to address the issues of children in need of care and protection (CNCP). This module describes in detail the powers, functions and responsibilities of the CWC with respect to CNCP. Also given are the various rehabilitation measures prescribed for children under the Juvenile Justice (JJ) Act, for which the Committee can pass orders.

Note: Facilitator must pre-read documents mentioned in additional readings and references at the end of the module before facilitating this module. Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs) for CWC are also part of additional reading materials. Section II covers few exercises and case studies for the readers/participants along with a note for the facilitator.

Objectives

At the end of the module, participants will be able to:

- ◆ Define CWC
- ◆ Describe the structure and composition of CWC
- ◆ Describe the powers and functions of CWC
- ◆ Describe the procedure in relation to CNCP.

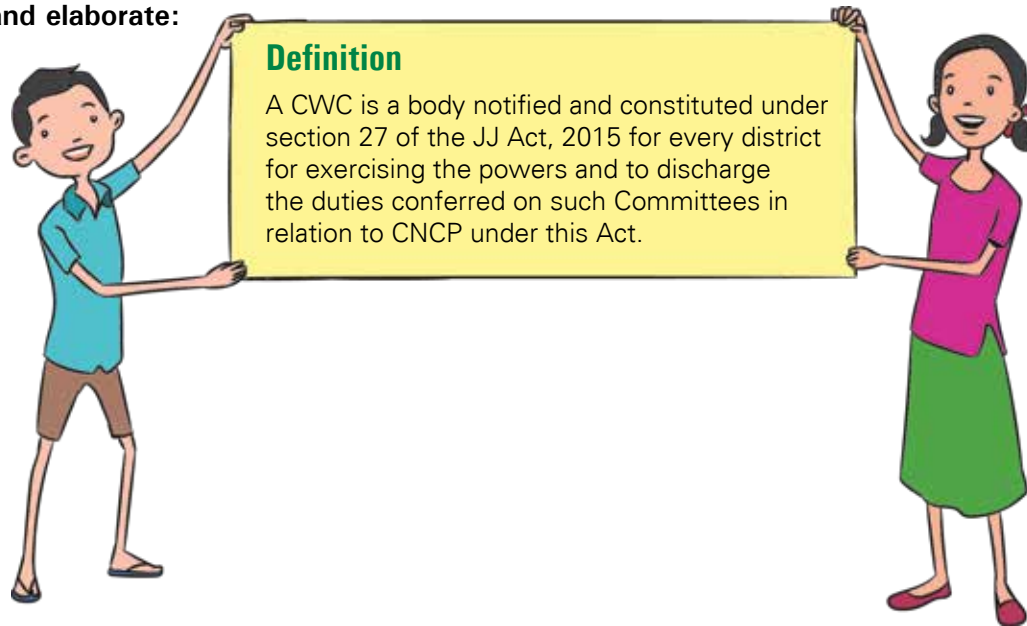

Definition, Structure and Composition of CWC

Time
45 Minutes

Step 1

Ask the participants what they understand by CWC. Listen to their responses and elaborate:

As per the provisions of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2000 (amended in 2006), the state governments are required to establish a CWC or two in every district. Each CWC should consist of a Chairperson and four members. The Chairperson should be a person well versed in child welfare issues and at least one member of the board should be a woman. The CWC has the same powers as a Metropolitan Magistrate (MM) or a Judicial Magistrate (JM) of First Class. A child can be brought before the committee (or a member of the committee, if necessary) by a police officer, any public servant, Child Line personnel, any social worker or public spirited citizen, or by the child himself/herself.

The CWC usually sends the child to a Children's Home while the inquiry into the case is conducted for the protection of the child. The CWC meets and interviews the child to learn his/her background information and also understand the problem the child is facing. The Probation Officer (PO) in charge of the case must also submit regular reports of the case. The purpose of the CWC is to determine the best interest of the child and find the child a safe home and environment, either with his/her biological parents or adoptive parents, foster care or in an institution.

A final order must be given within four months of the admission of the child before the CWC. The CWC also has powers to hold people accountable for the child, such as in the case of child labour. The employers are fined or made to give bonds to the children. CWC also has the power to transfer the child to a different CWC closer to the child's home or in the child's state to dispose of the case and reunite the child with his family and community.

As per the provisions of the Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS), the Government of India provides two grants for setting up of CWCs: a Construction and Maintenance Grant of 9.9 lakhs and a Maintenance Grant of 6.19 lakhs. The cost of setting up CWCs is shared by the Central and State Governments at a 35:65 ratio except in Jammu and Kashmir and the North East where the ratio stands at 90:10.

Structure and Composition (Section 27, JJ Act, 2015)

- ◆ The State Government shall notify one or more CWCs for each district, as required.
- ◆ The Committee shall consist of a Chairperson and four other members as the State Government may think fit to appoint, of whom at least one shall be a woman and another, an expert on matters concerning children.
- ◆ For its effective functioning, the Committee shall be provided a Secretary and secretarial support by the District Child Protection Unit (DCPU).
- ◆ A member of the Committee shall be a person who has been actively involved in health, education or welfare activities pertaining to children for at least seven years or is a practicing professional with a degree in child psychology or psychiatry or law or social work or sociology or human development.
- ◆ A member shall be appointed for a period of not more than three years. A member can be terminated after an inquiry by the State Government for reasons as prescribed in Sec 27 (7) of the JJ Act, 2015.
- ◆ The Committee shall function as a Bench and shall have the powers conferred by the Code of Criminal Procedure (CrPC), 1973 on a MM or, as the case may be, a JM of First Class.
- ◆ The District Magistrate (DM) shall conduct a quarterly review of the functioning of the Committee.
- ◆ The DM shall be the grievance redressal authority for the CWC.

Step 2

Ask the participants about the working procedure of the CWC. Listen to the responses and add the missed out points.

Procedure in Relation to the Committee (Section 28, JJ Act, 2015)

1. The Committee shall meet at least 21 days in a month and shall observe such rules and procedures with regard to the transaction of business at its meetings, as may be prescribed.
2. A visit to an existing Child Care Institution (CCI) by the Committee, to check its functioning and well-being of children, shall be considered as a sitting of the Committee.

3. A CNCP may be produced before an individual member of the Committee for being placed in a Children's Home or Fit Person when the Committee is not in session.
4. In the event of any difference of opinion among the members of the Committee at the time of taking any decision, the opinion of the majority shall prevail, but where there is no such majority, the opinion of the Chairperson shall prevail.
5. The Committee may act, notwithstanding the absence of any member of the Committee. No order made by the Committee shall be invalid by reason only of the absence of any member during any stage of the proceeding, provided that there shall be at least three members present at the time of final disposal of the case.

Step 3: What are the Powers and Functions of CWC?

17. Accessing appropriate legal services for children.

Procedure related to CNCP

Time:
60 Minutes

Step 1: Group work

Divide the participants into four groups. Give them a situation of a CNCP and ask them to describe the procedure to be followed for that CNCP. The situations are given below:

1. Akhilesh is a 13 year old boy who works in a dhaba. He has to work for 12 to 14 hours a day. He is often belted, beaten, hit and kicked brutally and is subjected to the worst kind of physical abuse by his employer. He is often denied food also. He was rescued in a joint raid by police and support from an NGO working against child labour.

2. A newborn baby was found wrapped in a newspaper in a dustbin near a hospital. The hospital staff informed the police and the infant was brought before the CWC.
3. Manju is a 14 year old girl. She was brought to the city from her village by her 'uncle' with the promise of a lucrative job. Once in the city, she was denied salary, abused and made to work from morning till evening, and had no means to contact her family back in the village. She was later sold to a brothel.

4. Girish is a 15 year old boy. He has been living on a footpath after the death of his parents. He lives with a gang of people who drink alcohol, sniff glue and smoke drugs. He was rounded up one day by the police and brought before the CWC.

Step 2: Procedure in relation to CNCP

The JJ Act prescribes the process for CWC to deal with CNCP.

Production before the Committee (Section 31, JJ Act, 2015)

1. Any CNCP may be produced before the Committee by the following individuals:
 - ◆ Any police officer or SJPU or a designated Child Welfare Police Officer (CWPO) or any officer of DCPU or inspector appointed under any labour law for the time being in force
 - ◆ Any public servant
 - ◆ Child Line Services or any voluntary or NGO or any agency recognised by the State Government
 - ◆ CWO or PO
 - ◆ Any social worker or a public spirited citizen
 - ◆ By the child himself
 - ◆ Any nurse, doctor or management of a nursing home, hospital or maternity home

What is the reporting process of a child found separated from the guardian?

Reporting of children

1. Mandatory reporting of a child found separated from the guardian (Section 32, JJ Act, 2015)
 - ◆ Any individual or a police officer or any functionary of any organisation or a nursing home or hospital or maternity home, who or which finds and takes charge, or is handed over a child who appears or claims to be abandoned or lost, or a child who appears or claims to be an orphan without family support, shall within 24 hours (excluding the time necessary for the journey), give information to the CWC (or to the Child Line Services or to the nearest police station or to the DCPU, or hand over the child to a CCI registered under this Act).

- ◆ If information regarding a child as required under section 32 is not given within the period specified in the said section, then such act shall be regarded as an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment up to six months or fine of 10,000 rupees or both (Section 33 & 34, JJ Act, 2015).

2. Surrendered child (Section 35, JJ Act, 2015) - Parents or guardians who, for physical, emotional and social factors beyond their control, wish to surrender a child, shall produce the child before the Committee. After prescribed process of inquiry and counselling, if the Committee is satisfied, a surrender deed shall be executed by the parents or guardians.

3. The parents or guardians shall be given two months time to reconsider their decision and in the intervening period, the Committee shall either allow, after due inquiry, the child to be with the parents or guardians under supervision, or place the child in a Specialised Adoption Agency (SAA), if he or she is below six years of age, or a Children's Home if he is above six years.

If the biological mother/biological parents want to surrender her/their child, the mother/parents come directly to the CWC or through any agency:

The CWC must interview the biological mother/parents and assess the reasons why the mother/parents want to give away the child. If the reason for wanting to surrender the child is due to a crisis that can be overcome through other forms of non-institutional support such as foster care, sponsorship or short term institutional care or other schemes of the Government, the CWC should not only provide this information, but also must make efforts to counsel parents to make it workable. If it is required, the CWC may refer her/ them to an agency for professional counselling to strengthen their coping capacities to deal with the crisis that they are facing. It may also be that parents are simply not willing to take responsibility of the child. Here too, counselling will prove useful. The CWC should not rush into a decision, but use counselling to support the child to remain with the biological family. The detailed assessment report by the counsellor should be taken on record and considered before final decision.

Step 3: What inquiry should be done on production of a child on receipt of a report?

Inquiry (Section 36, JJ Act, 2015)

1. On production of a child or receipt of a report, the Committee shall hold an inquiry on its own or on the receipt of the report and may pass an order to send the child to the Children's Home or a Fit Facility or Fit Person, and for speedy social investigation by a social worker or CWO or CWPO.
2. All children below six years of age, who are orphan, surrendered or appear to be abandoned shall be placed in an SSA, where available.
3. The social investigation shall be completed within 15 days so as to enable the Committee to pass final order within four months of first production of the child.
4. In case of orphan, abandoned or surrendered children, the Committee shall complete the inquiry as specified under section 38 and declare a child legally free for adoption.
5. After completion of the inquiry, if the Committee is of the opinion that the said child has no family or ostensible support or is in continued need of care and protection, it may send the child to an SSA if the child is below six years of age, Children's Home or to a Fit Facility or person or foster family, till suitable means of rehabilitation are found for the child, as may be prescribed, or till the child attains the age of 18 years.
6. The situation of the child placed in a Children's Home or with a Fit Facility or person or a foster family shall be reviewed by the Committee, as may be prescribed.
7. The Committee shall submit a quarterly report on the nature of disposal of cases and pendency of cases to the DM in the manner as may be prescribed, for review of pendency of cases.
 - ◆ After review, the DM shall direct the Committee to take necessary remedial measures to address the pendency, if necessary, and send a report of such reviews to the State Government, which may constitute additional Committees, if required.
 - ◆ Provided that if the pendency of cases continues to be unaddressed by the Committee even after three months of receiving such directions, the State Government shall terminate the said Committee and shall constitute a new Committee.
 - ◆ In case of any delay in the constitution of a new Committee, the CWC of a nearby district shall assume responsibility in the intervening period.

CWC Orders related to CNCP

Time:
120 Minutes

Step 1: Orders passed by the Committee regarding a CNCP (Section 37(I), JJ Act, 2015)

Note for the facilitator

Actual formats of the orders as given in the Act and Rules are attached at the end of the module as handout. Facilitator must plan the session to carry out group work where the participants will identify which order formats are to be filled in which situation. This will be based on the four case scenarios given in Section II of the module.

3. Provided such age determination test conducted on the order of the Committee shall be completed within 15 days from the date of such order.

Note for the facilitator

Since the CWC members deal with cases where children may possibly be under varying degree of trauma, attitudinal aspects of dealing with such children is most important. Therefore, the facilitator must lay stress on active listening, empathy and highlight the need for hearing the child's opinion, especially where the child is old enough to decide on the best recourse. These activities have been covered in detail in the module on facilitation skills. Another activity on empathy has also been explained in SJPU module.

4. The age recorded by the Committee to be the age of person so brought before it shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be the true age of that person.
